

GRAVE MARKER PURCHASED THROUGH AN OUTSIDE COMPANY

The Rules and Regulations of Ivy Lawn Memorial Park have been revised. Effective immediately, the purchaser and deed holder of any grave must agree to accept and follow the current Rules and Regulations without exception.

All purchasers are to understand and accept that some existing memorials may be exceptions to the current Rules and Regulations as these memorials were made by prior arrangements. This may allow for exceptions to what is stated in the current Rules and Regulations of Ivy Lawn. These “exceptions” do not imply that any exceptions to the current Rules and Regulations can or may be made in the future.

If there is a transfer or assignment of the grave, the same limitations apply.

Please review the Ivy Lawn Memorial Park Rules and Regulation provided on page three (3) of this form.

POLICY:

- If marker is ordered from a source other than Ivy Lawn Memorial Park, the authorized agents MUST provide the name of the producing company, a contact person, the company’s complete address and a telephone number.

- Ivy Lawn will contact the producing company to confirm Ivy Lawn’s requirements.

- The setting fee, eternal memorial account fee and endowment care fee must be paid prior to acceptance of a marker. These fees are to be paid directly to Ivy Lawn Memorial Park. No marker will be accepted by Ivy Lawn until Ivy Lawn receives full payment of the required fees.

- Ivy Lawn requires producer to provide, in writing, size specification, inscription, and confirmation of the quality of the stone, prior to acceptance by Ivy Lawn.

- The completed work is subject to the approval of Ivy Lawn.
- Ivy Lawn will set an approved marker within 1 week of delivery. There are no scheduled settings.

Customer to be aware that Ivy Lawn reserves the right to charge a professional fee of $ 50.00 if the producing company requires Ivy Lawn's assistance with designing, matching, or producing their sketch, blueprint or product.

Ivy Lawn Rules and Regulations 2.01

Rights to use and descent of property within a cemetery are governed by California law. Statutory provisions may be altered by appropriate provisions in a Will or other legal documents. Ivy Lawn recommends that the Deed holder get legal advice to carry out their wishes regarding use and disposition of property at Ivy Lawn.

Ivy Lawn Rules and Regulations 4.01 General Rules

The name or inscription on each memorial must be of the person buried there with the exception of a memorial purchased in memoriam. No changes shall be made thereon except upon request of the proper parties and by permission of Ivy Lawn.

No person shall erect or place, or cause to be erected or placed, on any property, any memorial until it is first approved by Ivy Lawn. *Ivy Lawn reserves the right to reject any plan or design of any memorial which is, in its opinion, unsuited for the property on which it is to be placed or to the cemetery. The completed work is subject to the approval of Ivy Lawn, and if unsatisfactory, it may be removed by Ivy Lawn at the expense of the purchaser. Upon request, memorial dealers shall furnish Ivy Lawn with a blue print or sketch of the proposed memorial or marker, specifying size, inscription, quality of stone and the name of the producer finishing the stone.

Ivy Lawn reserves the right to stop all work of any nature whenever:

- proper preparations have not been made;*
- Tools and machinery are insufficient or defective;*
- Work is being executed in such a manner as to threaten life or property;*

- d. The monument dealer has been guilty of misrepresentation;*
- e. Any reasonable request on the part of Ivy Lawn is disregarded;*
- f. Work is not being executed according to specifications;*
- g. Any person employed on the work violates any rules of Ivy Lawn.*

Ivy Lawn Rules and Regulations 2.09

“No coping, curbing fencing, hedging, grave mounts, borders, or enclosures of any kind, shall be allowed around any grave or plot; and now walks of brick, cinders, tile, stone, marble, terra-cotta, sand, cement, gravel or wood shall be allowed on any grave plot. Ivy Lawn reserves the right to remove the same if so erected, planted or placed.”
